

I don't know how many times we have to keep doing this. I feel that when I am home and close my door, that is my private time. No one has the right to bother me. It's bad enough to have to deal with commercials on tv, when "pay tv" was supposed to be commercial free when first introduced, and to get blasted with pop ups on the web, making it near impossible to be productive, as well as junk mail. If telemarketers start calling again, the phone companies will suffer, because we have decided to dump our phone service entirely. Please don't give in to these people who invade the lives of millions.
